ARC 235
ARCHITECTURAL PORTFOLIO

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Prerequisites: ARC 113 and ARC 114
Corequisites: None

This course covers the methodology for creating an architectural portfolio. Topics include preparation of marketing materials and a presentation strategy using conventional and/or digital design media. Upon completion, students should be able to produce an architectural portfolio of selected projects. Course Hours per Week: Class, 2. Lab, 3. Semester Hours Credit, 3.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

A student who successfully completes this course should be able to:

a.   Be exposed to different portfolio formats.
b.   Create an electronic portfolio.
c.   Create a portfolio in different formats.
d.   Write a resume with a portfolio format.

OUTLINE OF INSTRUCTION:

I. Portfolio Format Selection
   A. Types
   B. C(0 Td /TT1 1 Tf 0002 T)-ᴄT

III. Mockup
    A. Cover sheet
    B. Divisions
    C. Arrangements

IV. Production techniques
    A. Camera techniques
    B. Choosing film media
    C. Lighting techniques
    D. Using high contrast film for B&W photography

V. Resume
    A. Career objectives
    B. Education
    C. Work experience
    D. Honors and activities
    E. Special skills
    F. References